JOHN BRADSHAW

January 2022

Dear Partner in ministry,

Every new year brings with it the promise of new beginnings, great blessings, and unexpected opportunities. As this year unfolds, my It Is Written team and I will be prioritizing one thing over all others: souls for the kingdom of heaven.

If last year was anything to go by, we can expect God to do great things in 2022. I was recently told this encouraging story.

Angela, an It Is Written Partner, has been a customer of Dave's business for 20 years or so, meaning Dave knew Angela during what she describes as her "party years." Dave noticed a change in Angela after she came back to church, and when the COVID-19 pandemic struck, they began talking regularly about end-time events. It was the first time they had discussed matters of faith.

One day as they talked, Angela found herself talking to Dave about the book of Revelation. "The Holy Spirit really took over," she said. "I was still new to the faith and really didn't know anything so it was a true miracle. I had discovered It Is Written and John Bradshaw's messages several years ago, and because Dave was a Lutheran, I gave him the It Is Written 500 series." (500 is our powerful, nine-part series on the Reformation.)

Angela said, "By the time I saw Dave again, he had not only watched 500, but was also watching John Bradshaw's messages on YouTube. It has been amazing to see what God is doing in Dave's life." Angela said Dave has "grown and grown." And best of all? "Dave is being baptized this month!"

I knew you would love to read that. Because I know that, like me, your desire is to see the kingdom of heaven expand. What thrills me is not only that It Is Written Partners support It Is Written with their gifts and prayers, but also that they frequently minister to others, just as Angela reached out to Dave and shared Jesus from her heart.

At a recent Partnership event in California, one Partner family took the afternoon break to go for a walk around a nearby neighborhood. They greeted a lady outside her home, and when they learned she had recently been widowed and was feeling down, they prayed with her, and invited her to come to Partnership that evening. The following morning she returned and spoke with me. She thanked me for the uplifting messages she had heard, and then gave me an envelope containing a gift for the ministry! She told me that what she experienced at Partnership was just what she needed, and that It Is Written had helped her turn a major corner in her life.

The challenging times this world is going through are an unprecedented opportunity for the gospel. I sense the Spirit of God doing great things, and I am expectant as I look into 2022. This year It Is Written will produce dozens of high-quality television programs in English and Spanish that will be broadcast literally to the entire world, we will conduct major evangelistic meetings as well as overseas and domestic mission trips, we will produce new soul-winning resources, and much more. Our prayer is that Jesus would be lifted up and souls will be won.

Your support is what keeps It Is Written on the front lines of ministry, and we have an abundance of ministry opportunities before us. The necessary question is, "How are we going to walk through the doors God is opening?" The answer continues to be, "Through faith and trust in God, by the work of the Holy Spirit, and through your kindness."

Your gift this month goes directly to the front line of soul-winning ministry. And let me mention this. If you have never done so, I pray you would become an It Is Written Partner. A donor is considered a "Partner" when they invest $1,500 or more annually in the soul-winning ministry of It Is Written. Partners provide one-third of the funding for

It Is Written's annual evangelistic ministry. In addition, our Partnership events, held every fall, are mountaintop experiences where together we are blessed by the Spirit of God.

I know this isn't possible for everyone. I am extremely grateful for every person who makes the ministry of It Is Written possible. I deeply value every person who contributes to It Is Written at any level. If it is possible for you to extend your support by becoming a ministry Partner, it would add impetus to this ministry.

Daniella was so blessed by what she saw on our flagship It Is Written television program that she called for our free Bible study offer, and was baptized!

Daniella was so blessed by what she saw on our flagship It Is Written television program that she called for our free Bible study offer. During the call, she mentioned that she was interested in learning more about the Bible, so we connected her with the pastor of a church near her. Daniella, a Catholic, was moved by what she learned and was led by the Spirit of God to surrender her life to Jesus. She began attending church and was soon baptized. Another soul saved! Another citizen in the kingdom of heaven! I'm thrilled Daniella watched It Is Written. I'm thankful she made the call to request study material, and that we were able to refer her to a pastor who willingly followed up on her interest. And I'm so, so thankful for you. Without your support, none of this would have happened. There would have been no program made, no airtime purchased, no phone call answered, no Bible studies sent...which is unimaginable.

How many more Daniellas are waiting to hear the Word of God? Your support of It Is Written will ensure that many more Daniellas and many more Daves are won to faith in Christ.

Thank you for your commitment to ministry, your willingness to invest in souls, and your prayerful desire to see God's kingdom expanded and the return of Jesus hastened.

Please join me in my prayer for 2022: “Even so, come Lord Jesus” (Revelation 22:20).

May God bless and keep you.

Sincerely,

Pastor John Bradshaw

P.S. Angela, an It Is Written Partner, shared our 500 series with her long-time business associate Dave. From there, he began watching our programs on YouTube and is being baptized this month! During a Partnership event, Partners invited a widow they met on a walk to attend that night’s Partnership meetings. She shared with me that the message she heard helped her turn a spiritual corner. Daniella was watching It Is Written and called for Bible studies, which led to us connecting her with a pastor in her area. Partners support the global ministry of It Is Written with an annual gift of $1,500 or $125 monthly. If you’re able to choose this month to become an It Is Written Partner, I’ll send you a special gift copy of my new daily devotional book, The Hope of Glory.
