THE HOPE OF GLORY (DEVOTIONAL)

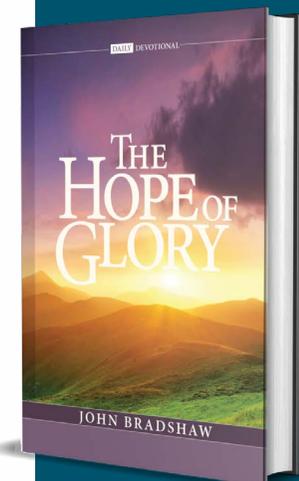

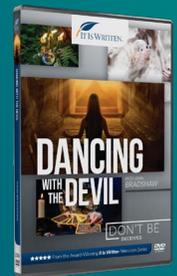

John Bradshaw

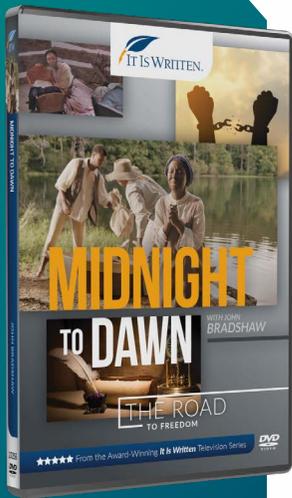

Christianity is something like a Rubik's Cube. Virtually everyone has heard of it, most people have tried it, but few have figured out how to do it successfully. In his struggle to live a victorious Christian life, Paul recounted his experience of falling far short of what he knew to be the will of God. But he went on to write about a Christianity that works and about Christians who grow into a faith that connects them with the mind and heart of God.

Within the 383 pages of this daily devotional, you'll find: Scripture to deepen your connection with God, stories to inspire your daily walk, lessons to guide your decision-making, and questions to challenge your thinking.

For the gospel to be truly experienced and lived, Jesus must dwell in the heart. As He does so, the presence of Jesus—the reality of "Christ in you"—becomes the hope of glory to all who believe. Invite Him in today!
