

REVELATION TODAY

THE GREAT RESET

Phone Call and Texting Scripts

Instructions:

Read over the script you need a few times to familiarize yourself with the key points. Say them in your own words when you call. Do not read the script. It is important to sound natural and friendly. They may ask you questions you don't know the answer to, but just let them know you will get them an answer and encourage them to keep coming. You can tweak and reuse this throughout the series for people who miss one or more nights. Of course, you should change the language slightly each time, but the idea remains the same. May God bless you. We are praying for you, and we believe that God will bless your labor!
