November 2021

Dear It Is Written friend,

It's a phenomenal thing, really. The idea that a nation would set aside a day in order to give thanks to God. In 1864, President Abraham Lincoln issued a proclamation which said, in part:

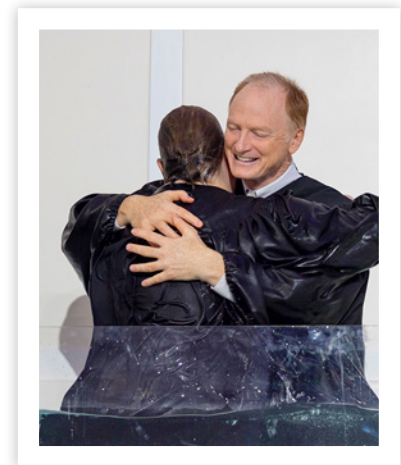

“And I do further recommend to my fellow-citizens aforesaid that on that occasion they do reverently humble themselves in the dust and from thence offer up penitent and fervent prayers and supplications to the Great Disposer of Events for a return of the inestimable blessings of peace, union, and harmony throughout the land which it has pleased Him to assign as a dwelling place for ourselves and for our posterity throughout all generations.”

It's interesting to me that President Lincoln wrote this proclamation in the midst of the Civil War. Today, we find ourselves engaged in an even more serious conflict.

Peter wrote in 1 Peter 5:8, “Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour.” Paul wrote that “we wrestle ... against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places” (Ephesians 6:12). And in Revelation 12:17, John wrote that “the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed.”

We're in a war. But we know that even during a war, people are miraculously saved. Just a week or so ago, I received this email from a woman I'll call Kate.

“I have been out of the church now 25+ years. I have listened to every message from [the Revelation Today] seminar, and I want you to know I have made the decision to come back to God. I will be baptized next month. Thank you most of all for allowing God to use you as a messenger of his true love for me. I praise God for directing me to your message of truth. I can't wait to be baptized!”

*Many people chose to be baptized as a result of the Revelation Today:
The Great Reset meetings!*

And that's why we, together, do what we do. Your support of It Is Written makes it possible for testimonies like this to be shared. Kate watched Revelation Today: The Great Reset, and surrendered her life to God. Her story simply doesn't get written without you.

This Thanksgiving, would you consider giving generously to advance the mission of It Is Written?

*“It's the money you give that makes a difference.
If it can reach just one life, it's well worth it.”*

A year ago, Angelo and Sarah attended an It Is Written evangelistic series and began going to church. They watched Revelation Today: The Great Reset last month, and just yesterday I saw a photo of their baptism! This happened because of your support of the gospel ministry of It Is Written.

As a new believer said recently, speaking to It Is Written supporters, “It's the money you give that makes a difference. If it can reach just one life, it's well worth it.”

While It Is Written expands its ministry—and I'll have exciting news about that soon—our intent is to reach more souls than ever. It Is Written is evangelism. It Is Written is soul winning. It Is Written is mission. It Is Written is church growth. We remain committed to reaching the lost with the three angels' messages.

I want to share more stories of lives impacted, souls won, and people changed by the grace of God. Would you be willing now to help me and my team reach more people that we've ever reached before with a special Thanksgiving gift?

We're in a war, and we simply must rescue more people from the attack of the enemy.

Thank you for your generosity.

God bless you, and Happy Thanksgiving!
